67th Annual
Arizona Treasure Hunt

We would like to thank you for participating in the 67th annual Arizona Treasure Hunt…THE HUNT IS RIGHT.

The 2017 Hunt Committee sincerely hopes you enjoyed your evening even if you didn't walk away with $$$, an all-inclusive trip, or a BRAND NEW CAR! Each year we recognize the top three amateur teams during the post-Hunt celebration. In addition, we really enjoy recognizing some rookie and pro team performances, as well as sharing some fun stories gathered throughout the evening.

While the actual prizes awarded annually have little monetary value, competition for first place remains spirited. The red Wizard Hats awarded to the first place winners continue to be one of every wizard's most prized possessions. The winning team also earns the fleeting privilege and immense responsibility of serving a three-year term on the Arizona Treasure Hunt planning committee.

Geography buffs would have made the connection to the HWOW with Albany, New York and figured out each picture was a capital and state — Hartford, CT; Lincoln, NE; Frankfort, KY; and Honolulu, HI. The circles spell out Little Rock, so head on over to circle AR

AR is located in Map Grid T11. From Alma School and Happy Valley Rd, proceed east along Happy Valley Road for 2.35 miles. Turn east (right) on Ranch Gate Road, and travel for 1.3 miles to N 128th St. Turn south and park immediately at the edge of N 128th St. Clue site is behind a large mesquite tree 125 feet south of the intersection of Ranch Gate Road and 128th St, 52 feet east of the centerline of 128th St.

Wise Hunters were certain to make purchases at Check Out. To solve this logic puzzle, you need to think back to the HWOW where a YouTube link showed a demonstration of the Parks puzzle. There is a spruce tree on the map, but that's too easy! A trip to that site would surely get you a picture with a Jackass. Solve the puzzle by holding your tree magnets up to the board. A correct solution reveals the message "Meet Vista at the Park."

As the USA Today article from the brown bag explains, Vista is Grand Canyon National Park's latest mule. Kate H. submitted the winning name and received a trip to meet Vista. It would be unwise to head to the park right now, as you would certainly be late for dinner. Instead, head on over to circle Kate for your next clue.

Wise Hunters will recognize this grid as a sudoku puzzle. Upon closer observation you see that instead of numbers 1-9, this puzzle needs to be solved with letters B K E L R J T A I. Head on over to circle JEOPARDY!

From Pima Rd and Lone Mountain Rd, proceed north on Pima Rd for 0.5 miles to Ashler Hills Dr. Turn west on Ashler Hills drive, and proceed 0.10 miles to the end of pavement and park. Had Hunters done some research into the photos of the Trump Inner Circle placed on the HWOW they would know that Steve Bannon was the executive chair of Breitbart News, so hop onto Air Force One and fly over to circle SB for your next clue.

SB is located in Map Grid M10. From Pima Rd and Jomax Rd, proceed 1.3 miles west on Jomax, and park along the side of Jomax Rd at N 78th St. There is a wash on the south side of Jomax Rd just east of 78th St. Follow the wash for approximately 110 feet to a palo verde tree between 2 large saguaros. Smart Hunters will remember the link on the HWOW to the song "Last Christmas" and realize the picture of the two men is the iconic 80's group Wham! Why is there a red circle through them? Why, No Wham, of course. The top photos show ET minus (Mr.) T and the bottom photos show Easy E minus Easy (Button). When Hunters arrive at the clue, the Wizard will hand them a bag with a label "Care Package with Love". The Hunters are to create a care package for the homeless using the items they were told to bring from the HWOW. Once the kit is complete, they will take it to the wizard for "check-out". The Wizard will hand them a card-like receipt that reads: toothpaste $1.09, toothbrush $0.99, shampoo $1.25, soap $0.50, charity priceless. All of these movie and television images; what's a poor Hunter to do? The astute Hunter will recognize that all of the shows pictured have numbers associated with them.

One, One, Two, Three, Five, Eight, Thirteen, Twenty-One, Thirty-Four.

From the HWOW, you should have known to brush up on Liber Abaci, the famous mathematics tome by Leonardo di Pisa (aka Fibonacci). Aha, the Fibonacci Sequence! The link on the HWOW under Liber Abaci explained the Fibonacci Sequence defined as: $F_1 = 1$, $F_2 = 1$, $F_n = F_{n-2} + F_{n-1}$

Sequences continue, and so does your hunt, so travel to the next value at circle (F_{10})

(F_{10}) is located in Map Grid D12. From 19th Ave and Pinnacle Peak Rd, proceed 1.35 miles east on Pinnacle Peak Rd. Park in the desert on the south side of Pinnacle Peak Rd. Each food item has a value associated with it, which should have given you a clue that you needed to use the ASCII table from the brown bag. The clue said to choose wisely, so hopefully you didn't translate all of the items to get CSLENTILBEANNPOPRG, which was obviously nonsense. The HWOW reminded you to "Make sure your answers are clean." A wise Hunter would pick the clean answers that are in the energy bites recipe from the link attached to this hint on the HWOW, and realize that these energy bite values needed to be translated using hexadecimal from the ASCII table. You solve to get CLEAN NRG, which sounds like CLEAN ENERGY. What is a form of CLEAN ENERGY? Wind energy, so go to the windmill at the circle

The HWOW instructed Hunters to study their state abbreviations PERIODICALLY. Indeed several states' abbreviations are identical to chemical element abbreviations on the periodic table! Using the atomic number of each state/element (and being careful with order of operations) you get an answer of 109 which is Meitnerium or Mt which is Montana. Drive on over to circle

From the HWOW, you should have deciphered the morse code that read "matching colors are right". If you take the wood pieces with the same color on them and make the pieces of wood perpendicular at the painted ends to make right angles, you will make 007. In the brown bag, you will see a list of celebrity deaths including Roger Moore who played 007 (James Bond) from 1973 to 1985. Therefore, go to circle RM

This clue consists of a Family Feud poster with the topic of "Manual Transmissions You Might Find In A General Motors Car". If Hunters pull out the list of manual transmissions in the Brown Bag they will find all of the manual transmissions listed on the board, and then some. What could the top answer be? As is always the case in Family Feud the top answer is what the survey says! Looking nearby Hunters see a Survey Marker sign and a Geodetic Survey marker in the ground. The name of that marker is T56 and there is a Tremec T56 manual transmission! Take your winnings and motor on over to circle T56

Hopefully Hunters deciphered the HWOW clue "Come Fly With Us" and came prepared with a Semaphore Decoder. The decoded message is "Go To The Circle Of This Airline". But which airline? The observant Hunter will notice that the semaphore figures in the words "This Airline" do not have any legs and thus are NOT wearing any leggings. After consulting the Brown Bag article, Hunters will realize that this must be United since they don't allow leggings! Change your clothes and jet on over to circle United Airlines

United Airlines is located in Map Grid C3. From 19th Ave and Joy Ranch Rd, proceed north 0.73 miles and park near the northern edge of Skunk Creek. Clue site is behind a large mesquite tree on the northern bank of Skunk Creek, 205 feet northeast of the centerline of 19th Ave.

This is emergency solution 17, which will lead you to Clue P.

Hunters can clearly see that this clue is an elf driving a car. But not just any elf, an "S"-elf judging by the letter on his shirt. That would make this a S-elf driving car! And where is this Self Driving Car? It is in Arizona! Wise Hunters would have visited the www.waymo.com website listed on the HWOW. This is the name of the Google spin off which is currently testing vehicles around the valley, and Hunters should easily recognize their logo. So sit back and let the elf do the driving all the way to circle

A young Wizard sits behind the table waiting for orders from the Hunters. If the Hunters have $0.25 and pay the Wizard they will be given a glass of lemonade and a cup of fruit juice (orange in appearance and flavor).

If you are unable to solve this clue, or to find Clue Q, open emergency envelope 06, which will direct you to Clue Q.

In addition to receiving a cup of lemonade for 25 cents, Hunters will also receive a cup of orange juice at no cost. So while the cup of Lemonade is 25 cents the cup of OJ is free. Free OJ – what's this? Well OJ Simpson has been granted parole this year and as of October 1st, 2017 the Juice is on the Loose. So head back in your van and try not to get stuck in traffic behind any slow moving vehicles. Head to circle BRONCO

This is emergency solution 09, which will lead you to Clue R.

This clue consists of a large table with a set of coordinates, a cross, the letter N, and part of a shape on it. Recalling that the HWOW had a link to Four Corners, Hunters should immediately recognize the coordinates as the coordinates of the Four Corners Monument (where the four states of AZ, NM, UT, and CO meet). Observant Hunters will also notice that the 3 maps they were given in the Brown Bag have different shapes printed on their corners. The 3 maps are not alike! Using the corners of these maps along with the shape fixed to the table several numbers can be formed. Even MORE observant Hunters will notice that within the legend of each map is the shape of AZ, CO, or UT oriented in a specific way. If Hunters take the map with AZ in the legend and place it in the AZ position of four corners with the state orientation to the north and do the same with the UT and CO maps (again with the states oriented to the N on the table), the one true answer will be formed. (The fixed shape on the table is in the NM location.) So head on over to circle ③

Beginning in 1970, teams with less than three years of respite from committee service and teams with six years of committee service are offered the opportunity to declare their cars Professional. This declaration must be made upon application for tickets to the Hunt. In 1981, the 1970 resolution was amended to limit those teams wishing to declare themselves Professional to those having three or more qualifying members under the 1970 resolution.

The Treasure Hunt Committee employs the following interpretations of these resolutions:

Professional teams agree not to compete against amateur teams in the Hunt. First, second, and third place prizes will be awarded to the three amateur teams with the lowest times per clue. If a professional team has the lowest time per clue for the hunt, the team will be added to the “Pro Button Winners” section of the Hall of Fame. Those team members whose status qualified the team for professional competition will be awarded Pro Buttons to be affixed to their previously awarded red hats. Any Pro teams having times per clue better than the third place winners will be identified for their commendable performances, while those Pro teams that placed closer to the other end of the pack will also receive some “special” recognition.

Teams that are eligible to declare themselves Professional for the Hunt but do not do so, for whatever reason, will compete as amateur teams and will be eligible for the first, second and third place prizes.
