

The next clue lies hidden beneath the sand

Beneath the cactus and the desert land

But beware, adventurer, for danger is near

Just like Arizona Jones, you have nothing to fear

Follow the symbols of ancient lore

And find the map that leads to more

Unlock the secrets of the desert's past

And the treasure you seek will be yours at last.

The three things Arizona Jones never leaves home without:

Bowling ball with three finger holes.

Ten foot pole marked in one inch increments.

A bag that can carry a Fertility Idol's worth of sand.

When thinking out side the box, read carefully, it could be an emergency
Please don't burn anything. There's always another way.
