

68th Annual ARIZONA TREASURE HUN+

We would like to thank you for participating in the 68th annual Arizona Treasure Hunt...READY HUNTER ONE.

The 2018 Hunt Committee sincerely hopes you enjoyed your evening, even if we're unable to award Halliday's fortune. As James Holiday once said "Only the Hunter with skill to survive to reach the end where the prize awaits."

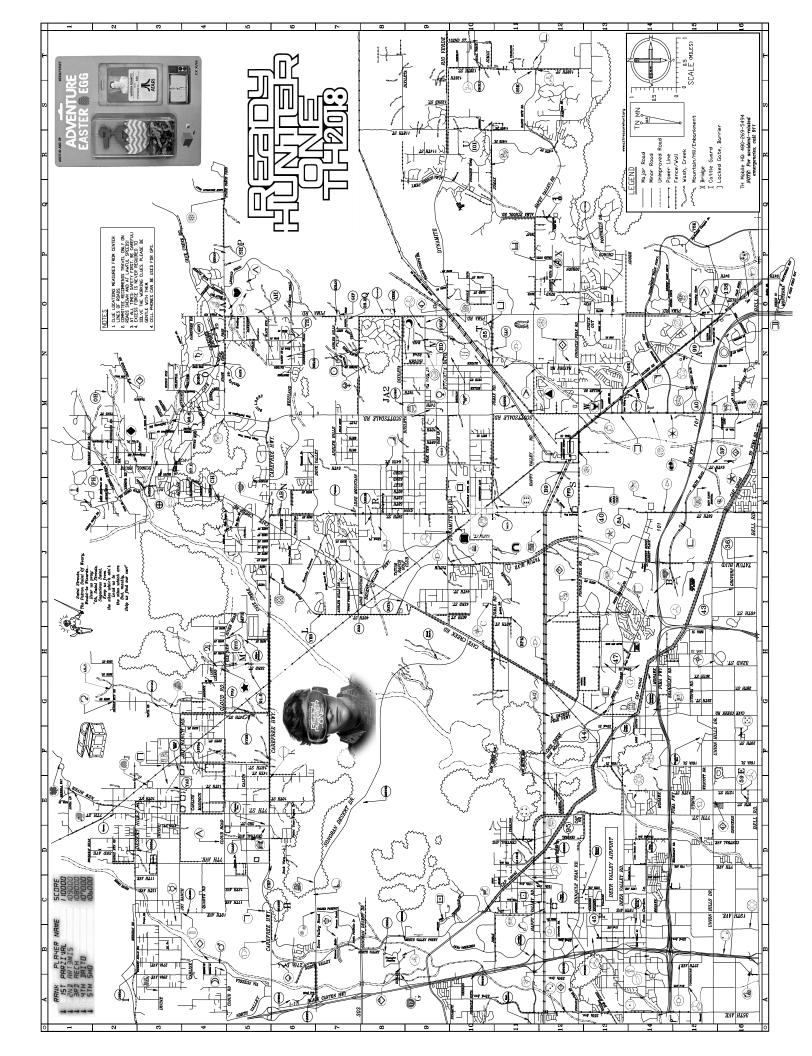

Each year we recognize the top three amateur teams during the post-Hunt celebration. In addition, we really enjoy recognizing some rookie and pro team performances, as well as sharing some fun stories gathered throughout the evening.

While the actual prizes awarded annually have little monetary value, competition for first place remains spirited. The red Wizard Hats awarded to the first-place winners continue to be one of every wizard's most prized possessions. The winning team also earns the fleeting privilege and immense responsibility of serving a three-year term on the Arizona Treasure Hunt planning committee.

This is Clue A. Solving this clue will lead you to Clue B.

When Hunters arrive at the site, they see Halloween decorations and Wizards dressed as ghosts. If Hunters know what to give the Wizards, then the Hunters receive a bag of 6 Tootsie Rolls.

If you are unable to solve this clue, or to find Clue B, open emergency envelope 14, which will direct you to Clue B.

This is emergency solution 14, which will lead you to ClueB.

Halloween decorations, and Wizards dressed as ghosts? Hmmmm. Maybe this has something to do with the HWOW hint "Bring something to help the homeless eat and the ghostly Wizards might give you a treat." Be certain, wise Hunter to give the Wizard non-perishable food items, and you will receive a bag of candy. Inside your bag, Hunters, you will find 6 Tootsie Rolls. Astute Hunters will open each Tootsie Roll and notice that each wrapper will have one of the following words/letters: Go, to, circle, with, E., T.

This is emergency solution 16, which will lead you to Clue C.

"Oh no," the timid Hunter may almost imperceptibly mutter, "Not another map table clue." Grab the map and hope for the best!

Inspection of the table will reveal a momentary switch along the edge of the table. Hunters should use the indicators on the map table to align the map properly. Pressing the momentary switch illuminates seven hidden LEDs, indicating a familiar celestial shape among certain clue circles on the map. This pattern is the Big Dipper! Using childhood knowledge (or the EarthSky article from HWOW), the clever Hunter will extend a line through the centers of circles representing Merak and Dubhe. The next circle along the path represents Polaris, represented by the 8-pointed star, so hop in your van and head to circle

A flight attendant woke one of the PASSENGERs.

"Pardon me, sir. Do you have one of these forms?"

"Nein."

"Do you have any children traveling with you?"

"Nein."

"Then you'll just need one form."

"Am I in U.S.?"

"Almost. We land in about 30 minutes. Please fill this out."

Confused, the passenger asked, "For ...?"

"For customs. You'll give this to the customs officer at the airport."

"Oh." the passenger replied with a smile.

This looks like an electrical circuit with resistors in series. Locutus of Borg said that resistance is futile, but in this case it's very helpful! Hunters in a hurry will try to enter the resistance values for the four resistors shown on the HWOW and they would see the letters J, A, C, and K when they pressed the TEST button. Sadly, that answer would lead them to the Jackass at circle Jack in the Box head. An observant Hunter will realize the resistors on the HWOW were hyperlinks to a website which explains how to calculate resistance in series. The circuit shown includes a 14 k Ω resistor, so the successful Hunter will do some resistor math to determine the values which must be entered to produce the same resistances shown on the HWOW. This classic is from the 1986 Hunt.

If the diligent hunter uses the plastic reflecting surface and holds it perpendicular to the figure and moves it across the figure, the following information appears:

DEC = 138 HEX = circle

This should tell them that the circle equals the hexadecimal equivalent of the decimal number 138, which is 8A. So they should be hexing their way over to Circle 8A.

Beginning in 1970, teams with less than three years of respite from committee service and teams with six years of committee service are offered the opportunity to declare their cars Professional. This declaration must be made upon application for tickets to the Hunt. In 1981, the 1970 resolution was amended to limit those teams wishing to declare themselves Professional to those having three or more qualifying members under the 1970 resolution.

The Treasure Hunt Committee employs the following interpretations of these resolutions:

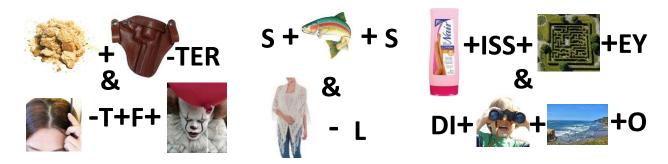

Professional teams agree not to compete against amateur teams in the Hunt. First, second, and third place prizes will be awarded to the three amateur teams with the lowest times per clue. If a professional team has the lowest time per clue for the hunt, the team will be added to the "Pro Button Winners" section of the Hall of Fame. Those team members whose status qualified the team for professional competition will be awarded Pro Buttons to be affixed to their previously awarded red hats. Any Pro teams having times per clue better than the third place winners will be identified for their commendable performances, while those Pro teams that placed closer to the other end of the pack will also receive some "special" recognition.

Teams that are eligible to declare themselves Professional for the Hunt but do not do so, for whatever reason, will compete as amateur teams and will be eligible for the first, second and third place prizes.
